Jim Triemplar Male and Female Athlete of the Year Award

The Jim Triemplar Male and Female Athlete of the Year is awarded annually to Atlee's Most Outstanding Senior Athletes. The award is named for longtime Atlee Track Coach, Jim Triemplar.

Coach Triemplar is known for his love of Atlee and most notably, his love of everything to do with our athletic program. We are proud to recognize the following two outstanding seniors as recipients of the 7th Annual Jim Triemplar Athlete of the Year:

Jim Triemplar Senior Male Athlete of the Year

Jacob Hines

Jim Triemplar Senior Female Athlete of the Year

Courtney Mudd

Principal's Leadership Award

The Principal's Leadership Award is designated for seniors who have effortlessly demonstrated leadership behind the scenes over the past four years within the Atlee High School community. These seniors do not command excellence - they build it. The following three seniors have exhibited a variety of dynamic leadership skills in many settings and have used sound judgment to make the right decisions at the right time when nobody was watching, displayed confidence in all that they have done, and have demonstrated dedication and determination while leading by example. We are extremely proud to recognize the following three outstanding seniors as recipients of the Atlee High School Principal's Leadership Award:

Zane Abbud, Mackenzie Brittle and Shane Hale

Sidra Raider Award

The Sidra Tree, growing strong and proud in the harshest of environments, has been a symbol of perseverance around the world. It is a symbol of solidarity and determination and reminds us that one should not be bound by obstacles we may endure during the journey of life. Over time, the Sidra tree represents nourishment, strength, and courage, as well as learning and growth. The following award recognizes two students who have demonstrated exceptional growth in becoming successful Raiders. They have overcome obstacles and challenges to be very productive contributors within various aspects of our school community at Atlee High School. Nominated and voted on by the faculty and staff of Atlee High School, we are very proud to recognize the following two seniors with the Atlee High School Sidra Raider Award:

Celedonia Brown and Baylee Buchanan

Legacy Award

The Atlee High School Legacy Award recognizes two outstanding seniors who have simply exceeded leadership expectations throughout their four years at Atlee High School. They are responsible and passionate, patient and energetic, organized and dedicated, and the following two students have made a tremendous impact and lasting impression on students, staff members, and the Atlee community during their time in Raider Nation. When we hear these two names, we all think of Atlee High School and the legacy they will leave behind. Nominated and voted on by the faculty and staff of Atlee High School, we are very proud to recognize the following two seniors with the Atlee High School Legacy Award:

Cameron Mottley and Margaret Pace
